

Service Reports Type Key

Case Type	Used to Document
Adoption	This case Type is used to document: Concurrent Planning Review, Final Adoption, Legal Consultation, Other, Permanent Plan Consultation, Placement Resource Consultation, and Step-Parent Adoption.
Child Welfare	This Case Type would be used to document : Behavior Management Services, Courtesy Interview – Out of State, Drug Affected Infant, Educational Services, Lack of Care Due to Poverty, Medical Crisis – No Care because of Religion, Medical Services, Mental Health Services, Other Services, Parent/Child Conflict Resolution, Placement/Respite Care Services, Relinquished infant, Special Needs In-Home Services.
Court Ordered Study	This Case Type would be used to document: CHIPS, Guardianship, JIPS, JIPS-Truancy, JIPS-Other, Municipal Court – Truancy.
Guardianship	If the case has been created specifically to represent an issue surrounding Guardianship this Case Type would be used. An instance of this could be where the child's only parent dies and a grandparent is applying for guardianship and the department or agency is assisting.
ICPC	Counties use this Case Type to represent cases where the request for services is coming from another state. If the request is coming from Wisconsin the case will be defined with a CPS Family, CHIPS or one of the other descriptive Case Types. Some counties refer to these case types as interstate compacts.
Juvenile Justice	This Case Type would be used to document: Behavior Management Services, Delinquency Under 10, Delinquent, Detention, JIPS, JIPS-Other, JIPS-Truancy, Municipal Court-Truancy, Ordinance/Civil Law Violation, Other Services, Parent/Child Conflict Resolution.
Kinship Care	This Case Type would be used to document: CHIPS, Long-term Non-CHIPS, and Non-CHIPS.
Re-Open Closed Case	This Case Type would be used to open a closed case in order to merge or to reopen, case closed in error.
Rule Violation	This Case Type is used to identify a case in which there is no abuse or neglect but the Foster Care Provider has violated a rule with the Foster Care License.